the career of Spain's celebrated author Carmen Martín Gaité spanned the Spanish Civil War, Franco's dictatorship, and the nation's transition to democracy. She wrote fiction, poetry, drama, screenplays for television and film, and books of literary and cultural analysis. She was the only person to win Spain's national prize for literature, the Premio Nacional de las Letras, twice. Martín Gaité explored and blended a range of genres from social realism to the fantastic as she took up issues of gender, class, economics, and those which Martín Gaité used to retell or enhance the works analysed in this book: Sleeping Beauty, the Little Mermaid, Amor and Psyche, Demeter and Persephone and the descent of the goddess Inanna. Looking at the extent to which these female characters attend to reflect on and respond to their dreams, images, memories and events, the analysis suggests that Martín Gaité uses her stories to try to communicate both the road to her own enlightenment and warnings about paths that lead away from this.

this volume is a collection of thirteen essays built around the question what is the supernatural and how and why has it changed over time it is divided into two complementary sections the first focussing on research on the discourse of the supernatural including the miraculous located in the medieval and early modern eras and the second consisting of a set of test cases involving research on the uncanny often articulated in a post freudian sense as expressed in modern literature film and art the eclectic and prismatic approach pursued via a variety of test cases of the supernatural in this book gives rise to a clear comparative and diachronic study of the main characteristics of the supernatural
